

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

‘Culture Through Our Eyes’

First Nations Youth Exhibition 2025

EXHIBITION RATIONALE

‘Culture Through Our Eyes’ is a First Nations Youth Exhibition which provides an opportunity for young First Nations creators to showcase their artworks in a professional gallery setting. Students are encouraged to create artwork which shares how they view their Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Culture – through their eyes. The completed projects will be exhibited for six weeks in a dedicated exhibition at the UMI Arts Gallery in Manoora. UMI Arts will hold an official opening event which all participating students and their families are encouraged to attend. Open to First Nations students enrolled in Year 7-12 in Cairns and surrounding area, accepting works in any medium.

MATERIALS

Many art buyers who invest in Aboriginal Art have an expectation that the artwork will retain its quality over times much as possible and has the potential to increase in value. At UMI Arts, we strive to promote our member's artwork as professional, authentic, and of the highest standard; ensuring all products and artworks sold at UMI Arts are created using high-quality materials is an essential part of this process.

Please circle which professional quality mediums you have used to create your artwork:

Paint	Professional quality acrylic or oil	Light fast pigment	High pigment load	Protective varnish
Canvas	Acid-free canvas	Primed with acrylic gesso	Stapled on back (not side)	Undercoated front and sides	7oz/350gsm or above
Print on paper	Professional quality ink	Light fast pigment	Rub resistance	Archival acid-free paper

CULTURAL STYLES AND SYMBOLS DISCLAIMER:

Traditional Indigenous styles, techniques, motifs, symbols and their meanings in art can vary across regions and cultures. Some of these symbols can be endemic to particular cultural groups and are protected. Although UMI Arts makes best efforts to ensure all artwork is culturally appropriate, it is the artist's responsibility to ensure that the use of traditional symbols and techniques is approved and appropriate.
