ABOUT UMI ARTS

UMI Arts is the lead Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander arts and cultural organisation for Far North Queensland, an area that extends north of Cairns to include the Torres Strait Islands, south to Cardwell, west to Camooweal and includes the Gulf and Mt Isa regions. UMI Arts is a not-for-profit company governed and managed by an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Board. We operate a cultural organisation that assists Aboriginal people and Torres Strait Islanders to participate in the maintenance, preservation and protection of culture. UMI is a Creole word that means You and Me.

OUR PURPOSE

To maintain and strengthen the identity of the Aboriginal people and Torres Strait Islanders in our region through our arts and cultural programs.

OUR VALUES

- We conduct our business with integrity and respect
- We work together with our members and stakeholders
- We are committed to creative excellence and capacity building
- We believe that arts and culture connect communities to make them stronger

OUR KEY OUTCOME AREAS

1. Skilling our First Nations artists and communities for success
 2. Strengthening and sharing our local cultures
 3. Growing partnerships
4. Being a strong voice for Indigenous arts and culture

Big Talk One Fire

First Nations Cultural Festival

EVENT BRIEF

PROGRAM RATIONALE

UMI Arts Big Talk One Fire First Nations Cultural Festival will be held at Munro Matins Parklands on Saturday 13 September 2025, from 3pm to 9pm. It is a free public arts and cultural event (fees charged for workshops & selected activities) that provides the opportunity to:

- Provide an opportunity for emerging First Nations Arts and Cultural practitioners to perform at a major events venue in Cairns.
- Provide a market platform for First Nations artists and businesses to promote and sell their artwork, giftware and services.
- Create a community festival atmosphere where First Nations people can come to celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures, be inspired by our arts, share information, and learn together.
- Acknowledge Cultural Resilience and promote Cultural Strengthening.
- Encourage members of our First Nations Arts and Cultural Sector and the wider community to participate in the preservation and protection of culture.
- Inspire members to stay connected, upskill, and create.
